THE LEDGER is the largest daily paper printed in Nashville—containing the columns and measure their length. It gives you more reading matter than any other. It is sold at the same price as any other Nashville paper—only one cent. You are looking for the most for your money, you can get it in THE LEDGER. Now is the time to subscribe—suppose you give it a month's trial.

Circulation More Than 1,000 Daily.

The Business Way!
The business way to advertise is to take space in the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month. You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise. We have never seen that time. Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains. If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unsalable goods into money, and realizing the money in those weeks which are salable.

Where is That Banner Now?
Grandstand (Ind.) Herald—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a banner in their processions bearing this inscription:
VOTE FOR GROVER CLEVELAND AND C. A. SWANWICK.
A liberal reward will be paid for that banner at this office, and no questions asked.
We are sorry the press of the state has offended the dignity of the Paris newspapers, but we got our information from a gentleman who was in North Middleton and saw the whole affair, and he said it was a "fake" story.

THE UTAH LEGISLATURE chosen at the recent election will be Republican on joint ballot by six votes. In Salt Lake City HARRY M. DUKE, City Treasurer, formerly of this city, was the only Republican who was in the City Ticket. In writing to a friend in this city he says the newspapers of that city are wondering how he escaped.

McKINLEY should miss the Presidential nomination he has the strongest claim to a seat in the Senate. He delivered 113 speeches on the same subject—or practically one speech 113 times—in less than two months—Excelsior News.

The above item was taken from a paper that wants "the people of the country to know that the newspaper men of Bourbon county are a set of reliable gentlemen, not given to publishing false stories." We are now thoroughly convinced of the fact that at least one of the number publishes facts, as we know to a certainty that Mr. McKinley never delivered the same speech twice in his life, unless he was talking to a set of people like the one who wrote the above paragraph, and then he did it to make him understand it, for such people, you know, have to be told things so often before they even grasp the slightest idea of the subject. He wants to attract Governor TAYLOR's lecture in that city the 25th and leave something about the "parade" to which he belongs.

A LETTER received from C. M. Gilpin of Marshall, Mo., brought the sad intelligence of the death of his sister Maggie at that place on the 17th. Just after they had buried her he received the sad intelligence from Washington City that his brother-in-law, Mr. Heard, had died, and his sister, Mrs. Mollie Heard, was very ill. Mr. Heard died of pneumonia. Mr. Gilpin will be remembered as a clerk in the late D. A. ## JERRY RUSK.

The First Secretary of Agriculture, Dies in His Wisconsin Home.
VINNIE, Wis., Nov. 22.—Ex-Gov. Jerry Rusk died Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock. Week before last he had a stone removed from his bladder. Monday he was reported much better.
Jeremiah M. Rusk was born in Morgan county, O., sixty-three years ago, and twenty years later removed to Wisconsin, settling near his present home, in what was then Ilaa As county. Few men have held so many public positions. Up to war times he had served in many local offices; was a member of the assembly in 1892, and during the summer following was commissioned major of the fifth Wisconsin, of which regiment he afterward became colonel, and at the close of the war was commissioned brigadier general.

JEREMIAH M. RUSK.

In 1897-78 he was bank controller and was elected a member of the Forty-second, Forty-third and Forty-fourth congresses was tendered by President Garfield the mission to Paraguay and Uruguay, to Denmark and the office of chief of the bureau of printing and engraving, all of which were declined. He was elected governor of Wisconsin in 1881, and served for three terms, a distinction never accorded to any citizen of the state, with the exception of Gen. Lucius Fairchild. When Gen. Harrison became president in 1889, he called Gov. Rusk into his cabinet as secretary of agriculture.
Gen. Rusk was a man of powerful physique, being 6 feet 3 inches tall and heavily built. In his earlier years he was a stage driver.
He was a man of abrupt, homely speech, but of a warm heart. He had been a candidate for much higher place when he was offered the Uruguayan-Paraguay mission. He spurned the proffered position saying: "Where in hell is Paraguay? I will go home and run for governor of Wisconsin."
Nobody ever dreamed when he made this remark that he could get the nomination, but he did it three times. His actions during the Milwaukee labor riots of 1889, in ordering the militia to fire on the men, which was done with fatal effect, increased Gov. Rusk's popularity in the state, and was largely instrumental in his nomination and election for a third term as governor.
He was appointed the first secretary of agriculture by President Harrison.

NEW SHIP LINE.

Galveston, Tex., and Copenhagen Will Open Up Trade.
TOKYO, Kas., Nov. 22.—Gov. Llewellyn received a letter from Alfred Christensen, a ship owner of Copenhagen, informing him that a company had been formed there to build a line of ships to run between that port and Galveston, Tex., to carry out the plan originated by the governor for sending the products of Kansas and other western states to Europe by way of the gulf, thus saving the long haul by railroad to the Atlantic seaboard.
A company of capitalists have been let into the contract for the construction of a steamship, to be called the Uranis, and has plans for two others to run in the Gulf trade. The three ships will have a carrying capacity of 7,000 tons, and will be of sufficiently light draft to permit of their entrance to Gulf ports. The first ship will be completed and ready for its maiden voyage March 1. In the meantime ships chartered for the purpose will begin to trade, the first one which will sail about January 1. The line will touch at ports on the coast of Denmark, Belgium, Holland, France, the West Indies, Mexico and the United States.
It is expected that trade with Pacific coast points will be opened through Mexican ports. Gov. Llewellyn is highly elated at the favor which his project has met with in Copenhagen.

CROOKS BRANCHING OUT.

The Towns in the Vicinity of Chicago Fairly Infested.
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 22.—An epidemic of crime is raging in Bloomington and Central Illinois. The greatest army of crooks and out-throats that has made Chicago the scene of their operations during the World's fair are scattering among the surrounding cities and country. In the last two weeks a large number of crimes have been committed in this locality. Men have been held up and robbed, assaulted and shot in large numbers, and all but murder has been committed. A council of the mayor and chief of police was held and it was decided to increase the police force sufficiently to take care of the situation. Business men in large numbers have supplied themselves with revolvers and rifles and are preparing to defend themselves against assault.
Admiral Sherrett's Change of Base.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 22.—Admiral Sherrett, who was recently recalled from his command at Hawaii, departed Tuesday on the steamer China to take command of the Asiatic squadron. Admiral Sherrett was superseded in Hawaii by Rear Admiral Hewitt, in order that in case of any emergency incident to the restoration of the queen a higher officer might be in command. His appointment to the Asiatic squadron is really a promotion, as the post is a more important one.

NOT A USURPER.

President Cleveland Never Entained Any Intentions

Of Taking From Congress the Final Settlement of Hawaiian Affairs.

He Concedes That This Property Belongs to Congress—No Instructions to Minister W. Willis to Resort to Forceful Means for the Restoration of the Queen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The opponents of President Cleveland's Hawaiian policy have criticized him as severely as on any other point for presuming to usurp functions of authority which they contend rest only with congress. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette was Tuesday assured by two democratic congressmen, who stand as close to President Cleveland as any other administration supporters, that the executive never entertained any intentions of taking from congress the final settlement of the questions involved in the past, present or future relations between the United States and Hawaii. He concedes that this property belongs to congress. These democrats say that the president's instructions to Minister Willis contemplated no resort to forceful means for the deposed queen's restoration. The minister was simply to acquaint the provisional government with the fact that the present administration was opposed to annexation; oppose a protectorate, and regretted what had been done by Minister Stevens and the former administration. This was the idea of settling for good and forever any hope that had been cherished by President Dole and his advisers that this country favored their plans. Upon the assembling of congress the entire matter included in the correspondence that has passed since the beginning of the diplomatic entanglement, Commissioner Blount's report that additional literature which Minister Willis may see fit to contribute in the interim, together with the views of the administration in the premises, will be submitted for consideration.

Congressmen Patterson, of Tennessee, and Sulston, of Texas, are the joint sources of this statement. They assured your correspondent that they speak by the ear. This is quite likely both are recognized as warm friends of the president. Mr. Patterson is particularly close to him since he commanded the repeal forces in Tennessee when defeated by both Senators Harris and Bates.

At the state department Tuesday it was said that the newspapers had been everything in the Hawaiian matter except instructions to Mr. Willis. It is stated that there would be no information on this given out, and that the instructions would be made public in Honolulu, and come to this country from over the sea. The really important part of the instructions is regarding the question of force, and whether or not the minister is authorized to use the naval forces of the United States to restore the queen. At the department there is the greatest reticence on this point, and nothing can be said with much definiteness. It is asserted, however, that the administration has not the least doubt but what Queen Liliuokalani has been peacefully restored to the throne. Coupled with the statement is another to the effect that the information received on the Australian was highly satisfactory, and showed that the progress that was expected. Belief was expressed that the change had already been accomplished, and that the next morning would bring at the important information that Minister Willis had carried out his instructions, and that the restoration of the queen had been accomplished. It was completely without instructions from the department had been forwarded on the China.

REWARDS FOR A BRAVE CREW.

Medals and Shares of Stock to the Men Who Fought off Bandits.
CENTRAL, Ill., Nov. 22.—In the presence of six hundred railroad men Tuesday, Engineer Benjamin Young, Fireman Charles McDowell, Conductor Andrew Calum, Brakeman Fred Stacy, Express Messenger Cornelius Boyle and P. J. Saunders, an ex-employee, were each presented by officials of the Illinois Central railroad and American Express Co. with a gold medal and three shares of stock in the Illinois Central railway. This was in the nature of a reward for the gallant service performed by these men in defeating the attempt of a gang of bandits to rob an Illinois Central express train near here on the night of September 30.
